RE: kbcr.gov

To the .gov Program:

As authorizing authority for The Tri-County Airport Authority, a State of Florida government authority designated by the Florida legislature in 1969, we request that responsibility for the domain name kbcr.gov be delegated to the Tri-County Airport Authority.

We are a public-use airport, governed by the Federal Aviation Administration, the Florida Department of Transportation, and three local county governments—Holmes, Washington and Jackson Counties. This domain will be used to communicate with the public our regulatory compliance, communicate our public meetings and provide the aviation community with information about the airport. The name “KBCR” refers to the designator recently provided the Airport Authority by the Federal Aviation Administration, known as an “ICAO” airport code. This will simply communication with the general public and the aviation community at large.

In order to obtain and maintain kbcr.gov, The Tri-County Airport Authority will meet the general and specific requirements for federal agencies, found at <https://home.dotgov.gov/registration/requirements>.
